

BEKA SCHRÉDER BURSARIES

ABOUT THE BURSARY PROGRAMME

BEKA Schröder (Pty) Ltd bursaries are granted for one year of study. Students would need to reapply for each academic year and renewing of a bursary will depend on the students' academic results.

Successful students will not be able to accept any other bursary or other form of financial assistance from any other company without the prior written consent from BEKA Schröder (Pty) Ltd.

You will be required to enter into an agreement with the Bursar and the agreement will outline the terms and condition of the bursary.

The bursary programme covers to a maximum of R75 000,00 of full coverage of study related expenses, including tuition fees, prescribed textbooks, accommodation and meals. Students will be responsible for the remaining costs. For study related expenses less than R75 000,00 the recipient will not be entitled to the difference.

Students who do not complete the programme could be held liable for the reimbursing of the partial or full bursary amount.

Bursary recipients will be given the opportunity to undertake vacation work or practical training each year.

Bursaries will be awarded to those studying within one of following fields:

- Accounting/Finance
- Human Resources
- Marketing
- Logistics/ Supply Chain
- Information Technology
- Engineering
